

Paella Party on Angel Island

paella, a celebrated rice dish from the valencia region of spain, was created by moors on the eastern coast of spain. it is now prepared in every region, using many unique and distinctive ingredients

Welcome Aboard

mimosa reception
fresh pastries & french press coffee

On the Island

angel island paella party, prepared fresh on the island in impressive 4-foot pans while you hike, relax and enjoy the surroundings

Paella Mixto

this traditional paella, made with chicken and seafood, sofrito: cooked with onions, tomatoes & whole garlic, followed by a parade of pacific seafood and vegetables. the dish is gradually layered, adding the seafood last, white fish, mussels & shrimp

Salad

fresh green salad served with spanish vinaigrette

Bread

soft french rolls

Afternoon Sail

wine, beer & premium non-alcoholic bar

$250 | 28 person minimum

Price includes vessel rental, captain, & crew, entrance to the park, plus all meals & beverage throughout the day